Dear Brother Chalk & Family:

It was good to hear of your return engagement in October of 1965 and we'll be looking forward to hearing and seeing you. Personally, we could enjoy you much now. We really enjoyed and appreciated your mannerism and type lessons you brought. We pray you always continue and to grow in these ways, more like you are needed in pulpits today.

Again a heartfelt welcome is extended to you in our home when in this area. We hope to meet your family, too. Perhaps on this return engagement they will be able to be with you.

Our Vacation Bible School is Starting on the 5th, we trust we have a good one and that all things done will be in accordance with His will. This is a new experiment and it will be just a little difficult to just know how to go about things to accomplish the best results. This is a difficult area to work in, but all things will work out well for them that love the Lord.

Love in Christ,

Bill, Lenna Mae and Eva Mae
